

STANDARDS FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

1. Members are required to have an appropriate legal status. (For example: incorporated, company limited by guarantee)
2. Members need to comply with the CISVic Rules of Incorporation and the CISVic Membership Agreement.
3. Members must work within current government legislation, and be aware of any changes to legislation that are introduced. (For example privacy, occupational health and safety)
4. Members of the Committee of Management and all staff are required to sign the CISVic Code of Ethics for Associate Members, which includes acceptance of the Confidentiality Policy.
5. Members must comply with the following core policies of the Association:
 - a. Confidentiality Policy, which includes the Privacy Policy
 - b. Impartiality and Objectivity Policy
 - c. Access and Equity Policy
6. Members must have and must comply with a written complaints procedure for their organisation.
7. Members must respect and uphold the dignity and rights of each person/family requesting services.
8. Members must provide a safe and dignified environment for the provision of services.