

TRAINING

RECOGNISING & RESPONDING TO FAMILY VIOLENCE

Aim: To provide volunteers with the capacity to respond to presentations of family violence and make appropriate referrals

This is a 4-hour face-to-face session co-presented by a family violence specialist trainer with experience in ER service delivery. Maximum participants: 25

This session will help volunteers to:

- understand what family violence is, the impacts and the 'cycle of violence'
- learn about contributing factors
- ways of asking about violence and responding to disclosure
- ways to support someone and where to go for help

When: Wednesday 13th June 2018 (10am – 2.00pm)

Where: The Multicultural Hub, 506 Elizabeth Street, Melbourne

RSVP: www.cisvic.org.au/training