

Tenants Victoria invites you to attend a free half day training workshop on:

Tenancy Rights and Responsibilities

Supporting clients with tenancy needs

Are more clients coming to your organisation for help with tenancy issues?

Would you like to be able to provide better support for tenants experiencing a housing crisis?

This workshop will cover:

- An overview of the most common tenancy issues.
- Clarification of what your role might be in giving tenancy support.
- Skills to determine when and how to seek expert tenancy advice.
- An introduction to relevant sections of the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 (Vic).
- Tips on how to help tenants maintain their tenancy.

Who Should Attend?

All community sector employees and volunteer workers.

When: Thursday 21st June 2018

Time: 9.30am to 12.30pm

Where: Haven; Home, Safe

10 – 16 Forest St, Bendigo

Registration: www.cisvic.org.au/training or portal@cisvic.org.au

The funding for these workshops was provided by Consumer Affairs Victoria on the approval of the Minister for Consumer Affairs.
